

Headstart On-track Training

We listen to our customers - the result is the On-Track Training service, which provides the necessary tools for effective discharge of daily functions.

Appropriate training facilitates the daily life of the organisation and amounts to capital that immediately helps staff in carrying out their duties: The Headstart On-track Training provides every member of staff with the resources to internalise the duties included in their job description, as well as helping them understand cause and effect relationships right across the field of work.

The On-track Training service helps to improve efficiency, reduce error situations and risks, and conceptualise the whole system into a comprehensible form.

The On-track Training service is most suitable for a number of work situations:

- performing daily duties
- increasing role-specific know-how
- employee induction

The On-track Training service allows you to choose a combination according to your role, or if you are interested in the whole process, all its elements are at your disposal. Each training section takes one day.

The On-track Training also provides knowledge and skills required in special cases for organisation members who have already used SAP for a number of years.

The On-track Training service includes:

- sales, purchases, production, quality management and financial administration process entities

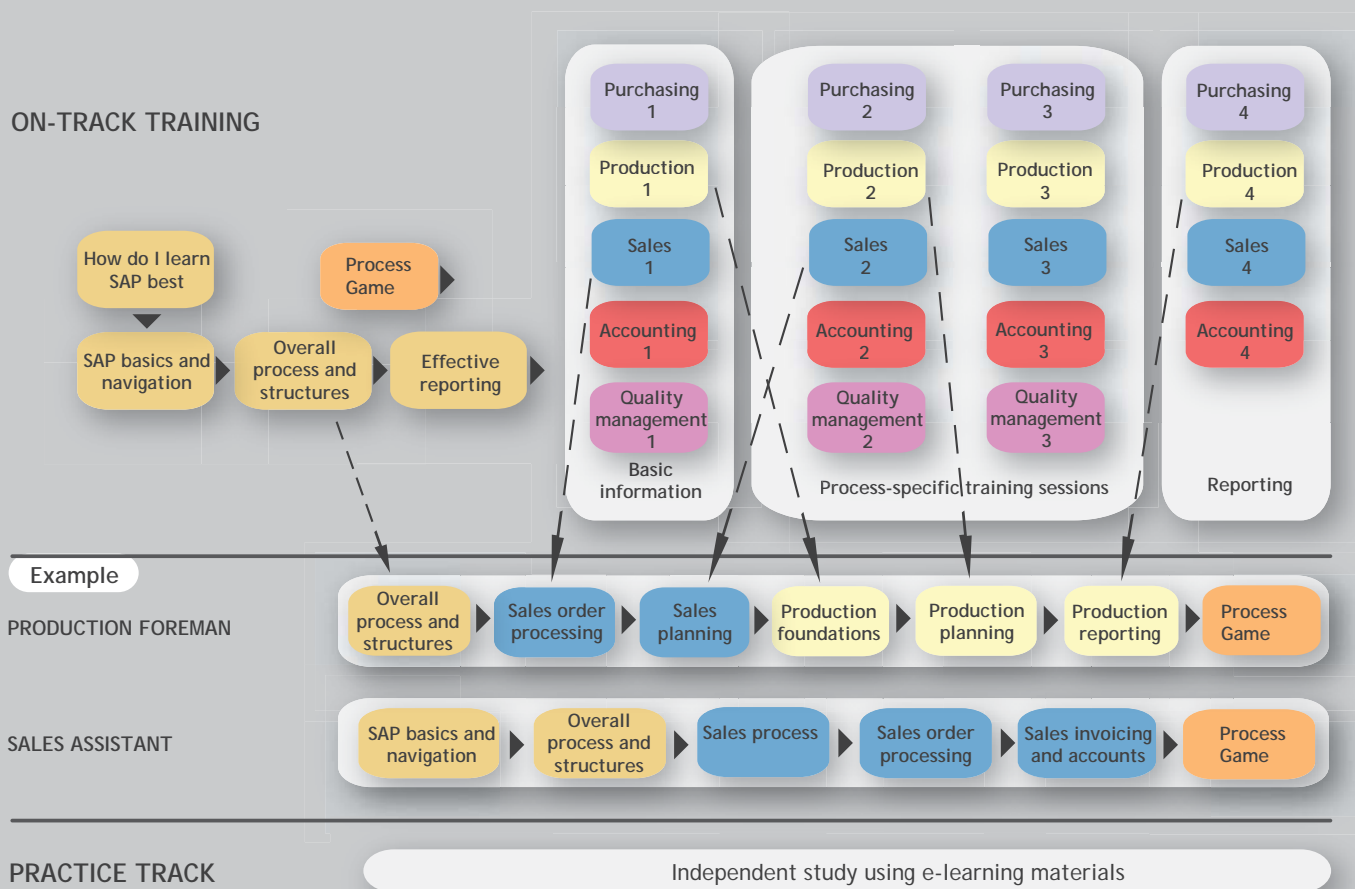

Common sections:

- navigation and foundations, how I will best learn SAP
- overall process and organisation structures
- effective reporting
- Process Game

The On-track Training service is designed for end-users who are the best experts of their own duties.
